

Proof of service must be filed with the court prior to your schedule hearing to show that the person you are requesting protection from ACTUALLY received the court documents in a timely (and legal) manner. Typically the papers will be served by a sheriff and the court record will be updated automatically to show the person was served by the Sherriff's department. This EA-140 form is only necessary in the rare event that the person is served by a private party (who must be over 18 years of age and not a party to the lawsuit)
